Objective: 8Ug.14 – Use a range of compound and participle adjectives and an increasing range of comparative structures to indicate degree. Questions: Q1–20 Total Marks: 20 Marks obtained: _____ / 20	☐ Student's level Attainment: Emerging Mark Band: 0–4 marks (0–20%) Achievement Descriptor: Demonstrates limited understanding of compound and participle adjectives and comparative structures for degree. Feedback: Often mixes -ed and -ing (I am boring) and does not use degree words with comparatives. Feedforward: Learn: -ed = how you feel (bored); -ing = what causes it (boring). Write three pairs.	☐ Student's level Attainment: Developing Mark Band: 5–8 marks (21–40%) Achievement Descriptor: Demonstrates developing understanding of compound and participle adjectives. Feedback: Knows common -ed/-ing pairs, but writes plural compounds (five-pages) or uses very before comparatives. Feedforward: Rule: compound adjectives keep a singular noun (a five-page report). Use much/far before comparatives.	☐ Student's level Attainment: Meets Expectations Mark Band: 9–12 marks (41–60%) Achievement Descriptor: Demonstrates an appropriate understanding of compound and participle adjectives and simple comparative structures. Feedback: Chooses correct adjectives in simple sentences. Structures such as nowhere near as … as cause some errors. Feedforward: Practise slightly/far/nowhere near as … as by comparing two phones, cities or films.	☐ Student's level Attainment: Secure Mark Band: 13–16 marks (61–80%) Achievement Descriptor: Demonstrates secure understanding and accurate use of compound and participle adjectives and comparative structures. Feedback: Uses most forms accurately. Small slips with very before comparatives or choosing between -ed and -ing in longer sentences. Feedforward: Check: much/far/a great deal + comparative. Write five sentences with both -ed and -ing adjectives.	☐ Student's level Attainment: Exceeding Mark Band: 17–20 marks (81%+) Achievement Descriptor: Demonstrates confident, accurate and flexible use of a range of compound and participle adjectives and comparative structures. Feedback: Handles the more … the more …, nearly as … as and -ed/-ing contrasts accurately, including in hard questions. Feedforward: Use varied compound adjectives (well-informed, fast-growing) and degree phrases in a paragraph of your own.
